Make sure your state celebrates!
Let me choose

[✓] Multiracial

[ ] Hispanic [✓] White Non-Hispanic
[ ] Black or African American
[✓] American Indian or Alaska Native – print name of enrolled or principal tribe

“I usually mark off Native American and White whenever I’m asked on a form, but only because there’s rarely a multiracial option.”
- Margaret Leyva

[ ] Hispanic [✓] White Non-Hispanic
[✓] Black or African American
[ ] American Indian or Alaska Native – print name of enrolled or principal tribe

“African American and White is what I would choose because they do not have other options. I actually prefer multiracial.”
- Brittany Cannon

[✓] Multiracial

“I prefer being able to choose multiracial, if it isn’t an option I mark Asian. I don’t fit completely in the Caucasian box or Asian box.”
- Afshan F. Khan

ProjectRACE

advocates for multiracial children, multiracial adults and their families, primarily through multiracial education and community awareness. We do not advocate for racial classifications, but are committed to the appropriate inclusion of multiracial people on any forms that require racial identification.
